

Aprotinin in your practice – where are we now?

- 7.45am Bacon butties and continental breakfast served
- 8.00am Chairman's opening remarks
Dr D Royston, Consultant Cardiothoracic Anaesthetist, Royal Brompton and Harefield NHS Trust, Harefield Hospital
- 8.05am The impact of aprotinin in surgical practice – strategies for improving outcomes
Mr D Pagano, Consultant Cardiothoracic Surgeon, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham
- 8.20am Aprotinin and renal markers in cardiac surgery: damage or dysfunction?
Dr W McBride, Consultant Cardiothoracic Anaesthetist, Royal Victoria Hospital, Belfast
- 8.35am Cardiac surgery and aprotinin in today's environment: a medical analysis of recent clinical data
Dr D Royston, Consultant Cardiothoracic Anaesthetist, Royal Brompton and Harefield NHS Trust, Harefield Hospital
- 8.50am Chairman's closing remarks and questions to the panel
- 9.00am Symposium ends