COURSE OBJECTIVES

Designed for practicing and training general thoracic and cardiac surgeons, this course will provide an update on the investigation and treatment of a broad range of thoracic diseases. The intended result of this activity is increased competence, performance and skill, and enhanced patient care through updated information in current general thoracic surgery. Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Discuss management strategies for esophageal cancer.
- Discuss staging options for lung cancer.
- Describe key current surgical management of lung cancer.
- Choose appropriate investigations and management for benign esophageal disease.
- Describe recent updates in management of end-stage benign lung diseases and tracheo-bronchial disorders.
